ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Dr. Kim Kurz is a professor in the Department of American Sign Language and Interpreting Education (ASLIE) at the Rochester Institute of Technology's National Technical Institute for the Deaf (RIT/NTID).

Kim is currently an Interim Director of NTID Sign Language Assessment & Resource Center. Kim was ASLIE chairperson from 2010 to 2020 and oversees NTID's Program Assessment Outcomes and Evaluations in NTID's Academic Affairs division.

Her career at RIT/NTID has always had a strong focus on mentoring students and faculty related to their research projects, including teaching a research methods course to interpreting students who are in their senior year. Kim's dissertation topic focused on how deaf children learn through direct instruction compared with mediated instruction via sign language interpreter and has done numerous types of research in the field of educational interpreting.
