WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

This workshop will provide participants an opportunity to take a closer look at some of the most fundamental strategies we can use when working with the DeafBlind community. Participants will discuss the differences they may encounter when working with the DeafBlind community compared to the general Deaf community. They will investigate and discuss a number of misconceptions about working with the DeafBlind community and consider the varied needs of DeafBlind consumers.

DETAILS

- Workshop approved for 0.2 PS RID CEUs (or DeafBlind in MI).
- Registration fee is $25 for one session, or $85 for all four sessions.
- Target Audience: Interpreters who are considering working in, or are currently working in the DeafBlind community.
- IRID is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for continuing education activities. This Professional Studies program is offered for 0.2 CEUs at the Some Content Knowledge Level.

OBJECTIVES

Participants will be able to:

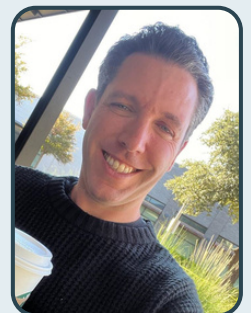

- Identify five differences between Deaf and DeafBlind consumers/communities.
- Outline three appropriate topics for communicating needs with DeafBlind clients.
- Name three misconceptions about working with DeafBlind clients.
