ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Interpreters sometimes decide they need to practice either to increase a specific skill or to prepare for a certification test. Often, they may watch a video or practice interpreting a piece a couple of times and then give up because they are not sure what to do next and can't tell if what they are doing is effective.

This workshop will help interpreters learn how they can use deliberate practice to identify their specific goals and then engage in deliberate practice to achieve these goals.

PRICING

- Early-bird with CEUs $60 (ends 10/30)
- Regular price with CEUs $75
- No CEUs $35
