DESCRIPTION

The newest CASLI Generalist Performance Exam is open and waiting for you! Do you have your test date on the calendar? Are you thinking about scheduling your test date? PERFECT! Rebekah has taken and passed the newest version of the CASLI Performance Exam and is excited to share with you all she learned about strategies she used for preparing for the exam, and tips for reducing your test anxiety.

This workshop will focus on the Performance portion of the NIC exam. During this workshop, participants will have an opportunity to walk through the format of the exams, participate in a mock exam, perform deliberate practice and self-analysis, ask questions, and compile a list of preparatory resources. Participants will leave this workshop with a better sense of how to prepare for this portion of the exam and know what to expect when entering the testing center. This session mentions, but does not focus on, the Generalist Knowledge Exam.

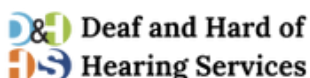

OBJECTIVES

Participants will be able to:

- Identify the three parts of the new CASLI Generalist Exam process.
- List at least five interpreting related tasks the exam assumes a candidate can perform in order to meet the needs of consumers and the community.
- Recognize the various registers and interpreting styles candidates need to be able to perform.
- Outline three strategies for approaching the performance exam.
- Identify at least four resources that help candidates prepare for the performance exam.

POLICIES

- For ADA accommodations, contact Cindy at cwoodpd@gmail.com at least 14 days prior to the event.
- No refunds will be given.
- CWood Professional Development promotes a learning environment free from discrimination and bias, and encourages mutual respect for all participants.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Rebekah has worked as a Sign Language Interpreter for sixteen years with experience in K-12, post-secondary, community, and relay interpreting. She holds a Bachelor's degree from the University of Virginia in Religious Studies and Anthropology as well as Career Studies Certificates in Early Childhood Education, Child Development, and American Sign Language. She is currently employed as an interpreter by Virginia Beach City Public Schools and Sorenson Communications.

Rebekah lives in Virginia Beach, VA with her husband and daughter. Outside of work, she raises a variety of caterpillars, plays cello, and is an avid reader. In addition to ASL, Rebekah has studied German, French, and Spanish.
