DESCRIPTION

RID launched a new Ethical Practice System (EPS) in July 2023. Have you read the EPS Policy and Enforcement Procedures? If not, do you know where to find them? Are you aware that harmful practices among fellow colleagues or consumers are now your responsibility to report, even if it occurs outside of the interpreting assignment?

Join us for a lively discussion as we begin to unpack the EPS and investigate the impact it will have on you, a certified interpreter, or a consumer of interpreting services working in this field.

OBJECTIVES

Participants will be able to:

- Locate and access the EPS and related forms.
- Decipher the difference between a Report and a Complaint.
- Identify two ways the EPS will impact interpreters and consumers.

DETAILS

- Workshop approved for 0.15 PS RID CEUs .
- This workshop is based in the Eastern Time Zone.
- Target Audience: Any certified interpreter working in the field of interpreting, any non-certified interpreter entering the field.
- IRID is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for continuing education activities. This Professional Studies program is offered for 0.15 CEUs at the Some Content Knowledge Level.

POLICIES

- CWood Professional Development promotes a learning environment free from discrimination and bias, and encourages mutual respect for all participants.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Cindy Wood, MAI, NIC is endorsed in Michigan for Medical/Mental Health and DeafBlind. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Marketing from Adrian College, and her Masters in Interpretation from Gallaudet University. After becoming nationally certified in 2006, she began working as a freelance interpreter. She taught Foundations of Interpreting I and II at Tidewater Community College for 12 semesters.

She continues to work in various settings including medical, mental health, post secondary, VRS, and community. Cindy served as the MIRID Treasurer for five years before launching her own Professional Development website, CWoodPD.com in 2020. In addition, she is a coordinator for CORE MI, a mentoring program for individuals who are currently in the gap. She is passionate about supporting colleagues, and working with others who strive to better our profession.

She currently resides in her home state of Michigan, so when she is not interpreting, hosting workshops, or organizing mentoring opportunities, she can be found adventuring with her 12-year-old son, Trevor, and partner Matt. They enjoy gathering with family, going on adventures such as camping, hiking, playing Taco vs. Burrito, and discovering new breweries together.

IRID is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for continuing education activities.
